World wickedness and deluge. GENESIS 7.

5 ¶ And GOD saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and that every imagination of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually.

6 And it repented the LORD that he had made man on the earth, and it grieved him at his heart.

7 And the LORD said, I will destroy man whom I have created from the face of the earth; both man, and beast, and the creeping thing, and the fowls of the air; for it repenteth me that I have made them.

8 But Noah found grace in the eyes of the LORD.

9 ¶ These are the generations of Noah: Noah was a just man and perfect in his generations, and Noah walked with God.

10 And Noah begat three sons, Shem, Ham, and Japheth.

11 The earth also was corrupt before God, and the earth was filled with violence.

12 And God looked upon the earth, and, behold, it was corrupt; for all flesh had corrupted his way upon the earth.

13 And God said unto Noah, The end of all flesh is come before me; for the earth is filled with violence through them; and, behold, I will destroy them with the earth.

14 ¶ Make thee an ark of gopher wood; rooms shalt thou make in the ark, and shalt pitch it within and without with pitch.

15 And this is the fashion which thou shalt make it of: The length of the ark shall be three hundred cubits, the breadth of it fifty cubits, and the height of it thirty cubits.

16 A window shalt thou make to the ark, and in a cubit shalt thou finish it above; and the door of the ark shalt thou set in the side thereof; with lower, second, and third stories shalt thou make it.

17 And, behold, I, even I, do bring a flood of waters upon the earth, to destroy all flesh, wherein is the breath of life, from under heaven; and every thing that is in the earth shall die.

18 But with thee will I establish my covenant; and thou shalt come into the ark, thou, and thy sons, and thy wife, and thy sons' wives with thee.

19 And of every living thing of all flesh, two of every sort shalt thou bring into the ark, to keep them alive with thee; they shall be male and female.

20 Of fowls after their kind, and of cattle after their kind, of every creeping thing of the earth after his kind, two of every sort shall come unto thee, to keep them alive.

21 And take thou unto thee of all food that is eaten, and thou shalt gather it to thee: and it shall be for food for thee, and for them.

22 Thus did Noah; according to all that God commanded him, so did he.

7] CHAPTER 7.

The general deluge.

AND the LORD said unto Noah, Come thou and all thy house into the ark; for thee have I seen righteous before me in this generation.

2 Of every clean beast thou shalt take to thee by sevens, the male and his female: and of beasts that are not clean by two, the male and his female.

3 Of fowls also of the air by sevens, the male and the female; to keep seed alive upon the face of all the earth.

4 For yet seven days, and I will cause it to rain upon the earth forty days and forty nights; and every living substance that I have made will I destroy from off the face of the earth.

5 And Noah did according unto all that the LORD commanded him.

6 And Noah was six hundred years old when the flood of waters was upon the earth.

7 ¶ And Noah went in, and his sons, and his wife, and his sons' wives with him, into the ark, because of the waters of the flood.

8 Of clean beasts, and of beasts that are not clean, and of fowls, and of every thing that creepeth upon the earth,

9 There went in two and two unto Noah into the ark, the male and the female, as God had commanded Noah.

10 And it came to pass after seven days, that the waters of the flood were upon the earth.

11 ¶ In the six hundredth year of Noah's life, in the second month, the seventeenth day of the month, the same day were all the fountains of the great deep broken up, and the windows of heaven were opened.

12 And the rain was upon the earth forty days and forty nights.

13 In the selfsame day entered Noah, and Shem, and Ham, and Japheth, the sons of Noah, and Noah's wife, and the three wives of his sons with them, into the ark;

14 They, and every beast after his kind, and all the cattle after their kind, and every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth after his kind, and every fowl after his kind, every bird of every sort.

15 And they went in unto Noah into the ark, two and two of all flesh, wherein is the breath of life.

16 And they that went in, went in male and female of all flesh, as God had commanded him: and the LORD shut him in.

17 And the flood was forty days upon the earth; and the waters increased, and bare up the ark, and it was lift up above the earth.

18 And the waters prevailed, and were increased greatly upon the earth; and the ark went upon the face of the waters.

Christ's sermon ST. MATTHEW, 5. in the mount

24 And his fame went throughout all Sȳr'ĭ-a: and they brought unto him all sick people that were taken with divers diseases and torments, and those which were possessed with devils, and those which were lunatick, and those that had the palsy; and he healed them.

25 And there followed him great multitudes of people from Gāl'ĭ-lee, and from Dĕ-cāp'ō-lis, and from Jē-ru'sa-lēm, and from Jū-dæ'a, and from beyond Jŏr'dan.

CHAPTER 5.

1 Beginning of the sermon in the mount. 14 The light of the world. 21 What it is to kill. 38 Exhortation to suffer wrong. 44 Love our enemies. 48 Labour to be perfect.

AND seeing the multitudes, he went up into a mountain: and when he was set, his disciples came unto him:

2 And he opened his mouth, and taught them, saying,

3 Blessed are the poor in spirit: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

4 Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted.

5 Blessed are the meek: for they shall inherit the earth.

6 Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled.

7 Blessed are the merciful: for they shall obtain mercy.

8 Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God.

9 Blessed are the peacemakers: for they shall be called the children of God.

10 Blessed are they which are persecuted for righteousness' sake: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

11 Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake.

12 Rejoice, and be exceeding glad: for great is your reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you.

13 ¶ Ye are the salt of the earth: but if the salt have lost his savour, wherewith shall it be salted? it is thenceforth good for nothing, but to be cast out, and to be trodden under foot of men.

14 Ye are the light of the world. A city that is set on an hill cannot be hid.

15 Neither do men light a candle, and put it under a bushel, but on a candlestick; and it giveth light unto all that are in the house.

16 Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven.

17 ¶ Think not that I am come to destroy the law, or the prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to fulfil.

18 For verily I say unto you, Till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled.

19 Whosoever therefore shall break one of these least commandments, and shall teach men so, he shall be called the least in the kingdom of heaven: but whosoever shall do and teach them, the same shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven.

20 For I say unto you, That except your righteousness shall exceed the righteousness of the scribes and Phăr'ĭ-sees, ye shall in no case enter into the kingdom of heaven.

21 ¶ Ye have heard that it was said by them of old time, Thou shalt not kill; and whosoever shall kill shall be in danger of the judgment:

22 But I say unto you, That whosoever is angry with his brother without a cause shall be in danger of the judgment: and whosoever shall say to his brother, Raca, shall be in danger of the council: but whosoever shall say, Thou fool, shall be in danger of hell fire.

23 Therefore if thou bring thy gift to the altar, and there rememberest that thy brother hath ought against thee;

24 Leave there thy gift before the altar, and go thy way; first be reconciled to thy brother, and then come and offer thy gift.

25 Agree with thine adversary quickly, whiles thou art in the way with him; lest at any time the adversary deliver thee to the judge, and the judge deliver thee to the officer, and thou be cast into prison.

26 Verily I say unto thee, Thou shalt by no means come out thence, till thou hast paid the uttermost farthing.

27 ¶ Ye have heard that it was said by them of old time, Thou shalt not commit adultery:

28 But I say unto you, That whosoever looketh on a woman to lust after her hath committed adultery with her already in his heart.

29 And if thy right eye offend thee, pluck it out, and cast it from thee: for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perish, and not that thy whole body should be cast into hell.

20 And Rē′u lived two and thirty years, and begat Sē′rug:
21 And Rē′u lived after he begat Sē′rug two hundred and seven years, and begat sons and daughters.
22 And Sē′rug lived thirty years, and begat Nā′hôr:
23 And Sē′rug lived after he begat Nā′hôr two hundred years, and begat sons and daughters.
24 And Nā′hôr lived nine and twenty years, and begat Tē′rah:
25 And Nā′hôr lived after he begat Tē′rah an hundred and nineteen years, and begat sons and daughters.
26 And Tē′rah lived seventy years, and begat Ā′brăm, Nā′hôr, and Hā′ran.
27 ¶ Now these are the generations of Tē′rah: Tē′rah begat Ā′brăm, Nā′hôr, and Hā′ran; and Hā′ran begat Lŏt.
28 And Hā′ran died before his father Tē′rah in the land of his nativity, in Ûr of the Chăl′deeş.
29 And Ā′brăm and Nā′hôr took them wives: the name of Ā′brăm's wife was Sā′rāi; and the name of Nā′hôr's wife, Mil′cah, the daughter of Hā′ran, the father of Mil′cah, and the father of Is′cah.
30 But Sā′rāi was barren; she had no child.
31 And Tē′rah took Ā′brăm his son, and Lŏt the son of Hā′ran his son's son, and Sā′rāi his daughter in law, his son Ā′brăm's wife; and they went forth with them from Ûr of the Chăl′deeş, to go into the land of Cā′năan; and they came unto Hā′ran, and dwelt there.
32 And the days of Tē′rah were two hundred and five years: and Tē′rah died in Hā′ran.

CHAPTER 12.

1 God calleth Abram, and blesseth him with a promise of Christ: 4 he departs from Haran. 6 Canaan promised.

NOW the LORD had said unto Ā′brăm, Get thee out of thy country, and from thy kindred, and from thy father's house, unto a land that I will shew thee:
2 And I will make of thee a great nation, and I will bless thee, and make thy name great; and thou shalt be a blessing:
3 And I will bless them that bless thee, and curse him that curseth thee: and in thee shall all families of the earth be blessed.
4 So Ā′brăm departed, as the LORD had spoken unto him; and Lŏt went with him: and Ā′brăm was seventy and five years old when he departed out of Hā′ran.
5 And Ā′brăm took Sā′rāi his wife, and Lŏt his brother's son, and all their substance that they had gathered, and the souls that they had gotten in Hā′ran; and they went forth to go into the land of Cā′năan; and into the land of Cā′năan they came.
6 ¶ And Ā′brăm passed through the land unto the place of Sī′chem, unto the plain of Mō′reh. And the Cā′năan-ite was then in the land.
7 And the LORD appeared unto Ā′brăm, and said, Unto thy seed will I give this land: and there builded he an altar unto the LORD, who appeared unto him.
8 And he removed from thence unto a mountain on the east of Bĕth′-el, and pitched his tent, having Bĕth′-el on the west, and Hā′ī on the east: and there he builded an altar unto the LORD, and called upon the name of the LORD.
9 And Ā′brăm journeyed, going on still toward the south.
10 ¶ And there was a famine in the land: and Ā′brăm went down into Ē′gўpt to sojourn there; for the famine was grievous in the land.
11 And it came to pass, when he was come near to enter into Ē′gўpt, that he said unto Sā′rāi his wife, Behold now, I know that thou art a fair woman to look upon:
12 Therefore it shall come to pass, when the Ē-gўp′tjans shall see thee, that they shall say, This is his wife: and they will kill me, but they will save thee alive.
13 Say, I pray thee, thou art my sister: that it may be well with me for thy sake; and my soul shall live because of thee.

2 And he sent messengers to A'hăb king of Iṣ'ra-el into the city, and said unto him, Thus saith Běn-hā'dăd,

3 Thy silver and thy gold is mine; thy wives also and thy children, even the goodliest, are mine.

17 And the young men of the princes of the provinces went out first; and Běn-hā'dăd sent out, and they told him, saying, There are men come out of Sa-mā'ri-a.

18 And he said, Whether they be come out for peace, take them alive; or whether they be come out for war, take them alive.

13 ¶ Then cometh Jē'sus [r]from Găl'ĭ-lee to Jôr'dăn unto John, to be baptized of him.

S. LUKE, 19. Christ visiteth a publican.

Do not commit adultery, Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Honour thy father and thy mother.

21 And he said, All these have I kept from my youth up.

22 Now when Jē'sus heard these things, he said unto him, Yet lackest thou one thing: sell all that thou hast, and distribute unto the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come, follow me.

23 And when he heard this, he was very sorrowful: for he was very rich.

24 And when Jē'sus saw that he was very sorrowful, he said, How hardly shall they that have riches enter into the kingdom of God!

25 For it is easier for a camel to go through a needle's eye, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

26 And they that heard it said, Who then can be saved?

27 And he said, The things which are impossible with men, are possible with God.

28 Then Pē'ter said, Lo, we have left all, and followed thee.

29 And he said unto them, Verily I say unto you, There is no man that hath left house, or parents, or brethren, or wife, or children, for the kingdom of God's sake,

30 Who shall not receive manifold more in this present time, and in the world to come life everlasting.

31 Then he took unto him the twelve, and said unto them, Behold, we go up to Je-

CHAPTER 19. 992

AND Jē'sus entered and passed through Jēr'i-chō.

2 And, behold, there was a man named Zac-chæ'us, which was the chief among the publicans, and he was rich.

3 And he sought to see Jē'sus, who he was; and could not for the press, because he was little of stature.

4 And he ran before, and climbed up into a sycamore tree to see him: for he was to pass that way.

5 And when Jē'sus came to the place, he looked up, and saw him, and said unto him, Zac-chæ'us, make haste, and come down, for to day I must abide at thy house.

6 And he made haste, and came down, and received him joyfully.

7 And when they saw it, they all murmured, saying, That he was gone to be guest with a man that is a sinner.

8 And Zac-chæ'us stood, and said unto the Lord, Behold, Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor: and if I have taken any thing from any man by false accusation, I restore him fourfold.

9 And Jē'sus said unto him, This day is salvation come to this house, forsomuch as he also is a son of A'bra-ham.

10 For the Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost.

11 And as they heard these things, he added and spake a parable, because he was nigh to Je-ru'sa-lĕm, and because they thought that the kingdom of God should immediately appear.

Phăr´ĭ-sees were offended, after they heard this saying?

13 But he answered and said, [m] Every plant, which my heavenly Father hath not planted, shall be rooted up.

14 Let them alone: [n] they be blind leaders of the blind. And if the blind lead the blind, both shall fall into the ditch.

15 [o] Then answered Pē´tĕr and said unto him, Declare unto us this parable.

16 And Jē´şus said, [p] Are ye also yet without understanding?

17 Do not ye yet understand, that [q] whatsoever entereth in at the mouth goeth into the belly, and is cast out into the draught?

18 But [r] those things which proceed out of the mouth come forth from the heart; and they defile the man.

19 [s] For out of the heart proceed evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false witness, blasphemies:

20 These are the things which defile a man: but to eat with unwashen hands defileth not a man.

21 ¶ [t] Then Jē´şus went thence, and departed into the coasts of Tȳre and Sī´dŏn.

22 And, behold, a woman of Că´năan came out of the same coasts, and cried unto him, saying, Have mercy on me, O Lord, thou son of Dā´vid; my daughter is grievously vexed with a devil.

23 But he answered her not a word. And his disciples came and besought him, saying, Send her away; for she crieth after us.

24 But he answered and said, [u] I am not sent but unto the lost sheep of the house of Ĭs´ra-el.

25 Then came she and worshipped him, saying, Lord, help me.

26 But he answered and said, It is not meet to take the children's bread, and to cast it to [x] dogs.

27 And she said, Truth, Lord: yet the dogs eat of the crumbs which fall from their masters' table.

28 Then Jē´şus answered and said unto her, O woman, great is thy faith: be it unto thee even as thou wilt. And her daughter was made whole from that very hour.

ST. LUKE, 5.

13 And he put forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will: be thou clean. And immediately the leprosy departed from him.

14 And he charged him to tell no man: but go, and shew thyself to the priest, and offer for thy cleansing, according as Mō'şeş commanded, for a testimony unto them.

15 But so much the more went there a fame abroad of him: and great multitudes came together to hear, and to be healed by him of their infirmities.

16 ¶ And he withdrew himself into the wilderness, and prayed.

17 And it came to pass on a certain day, as he was teaching, that there were Phär'ī-seeş and doctors of the law sitting by, which were come out of every town of Gāl'ī-lee, and Jū-dæ'a, and Jē-rū'sā-lēm: and the power of the Lord was present to heal them.

18 ¶ And, behold, men brought in a bed a man which was taken with a palsy: and they sought means to bring him in, and to lay him before him.

19 And when they could not find by what way they might bring him in because of the multitude, they went upon the house top, and let him down through the tiling with his couch into the midst before Jē'şus.

20 And when he saw their faith, he said unto him, Man, thy sins are forgiven thee.

21 And the scribes and the Phär'ī-seeş began to reason, saying, Who is this which speaketh blasphemies? Who can forgive sins, but God alone?

22 But when Jē'şus perceived their thoughts, he answering said unto them, What reason ye in your hearts?

23 Whether is easier, to say, Thy sins be forgiven thee; or to say, Rise up and walk?

24 But that ye may know that the Son of man hath power upon earth to forgive sins, (he said unto the sick of the palsy,) I say unto thee, Arise, and take up thy couch, and go into thine house.

25 And immediately he rose up before them, and took up that whereon he lay, and departed to his own house, glorifying God.

26 And they were all amazed, and they glorified God, and were filled with fear, saying, We have seen strange things to day.

27 ¶ And after these things he went forth, and saw a publican, named Lē'vī, sitting at the receipt of custom: and he said unto him, Follow me.

28 And he left all, rose up, and followed him.

29 And Lē'vī made him a great feast in his own house: and there was a great company of publicans and of others that sat down with them.

30 But their scribes and Phär'ī-seeş murmured against his disciples, saying, Why do ye eat and drink with publicans and sinners?

31 And Jē'şus answering

The Great Writings of Luther in English

Works of Martin Luther

PHILADELPHIA EDITION

The works have been translated in their entirety. The editors have had no other desire than to say in English what Luther said in German and in Latin. They have suppressed nothing, but have allowed Luther to speak his own mind in a new language. Most of the works are here put into English for the first time. Of the fifteen writings contained in the first two volumes, ten have never been translated into English before.

The translators are men of known scholarly ability. They are eminently qualified for the work they have undertaken to do, and it is being done with the utmost care. Each writing has its own separate introduction, and allusions which the modern reader finds difficult are explained in foot-notes.

CHAPTER 1.

1 Conquests by Judah. 8 Jerusalem taken. 21 The acts of Benjamin. 29 Nations remaining unconquered.

B. C. 1425.

NOW after the death of Jŏsh'u-a it came to pass, that the children of Ĭs'ra-el [a]asked the LORD, saying, Who shall go up for us against the Cā'năan-ītes first, to fight against them?

2 And the LORD said, [b]Jū'dah shall go up: behold, I have delivered the land into his hand.

3 And Jū'dah said unto Sĭm'e-on his brother, Come up with me into my lot, that we may fight against the Cā'năan-ītes; and I likewise will go with thee into thy lot. [c]So Sĭm'e-on went with him.

4 And Jū'dah went up; and [d]the LORD delivered the Cā'năan-ītes and the Pĕr'ĭz-zītes into their hand: and they slew of them in Bē'zek ten thousand men.

5 And they found Ă-dŏn'ī-bē'zek in Bē'zek: and they fought against him, and they slew the Cā'năan-ītes and the Pĕr'ĭz-zītes.

6 But Ă-dŏn'ī-bē'zek fled; and they pursued after him, and caught him, and cut off his thumbs and his great toes.

7 And Ă-dŏn'ī-bē'zek said, Threescore and ten kings, having [1]their thumbs and their great toes cut off, [2]gathered their meat under my table: [e]as I have done, so God hath requited me. And they brought him to Je-ru'sa-lĕm, and there he died.

e Lev. 24. 19. Ps. 109. 16.

8 Now the children of Jū'dah had fought against Jĕ-ru'sa-lĕm, and had taken it, and smitten it with the edge of the sword, and set the city on fire.

9 And afterward the children of Jū'dah went down to fight against the Cā'năan-ītes, that dwelt in the mountain, and in the south, and in the valley.

10 And Jū'dah went against the Cā'năan-ītes that dwelt in Hē'bron: (now the name of Hē'bron before was Kĭr'jath-ăr'ba:) and they slew Shē'shāi, and Ăh'ĭ-măn, and Tăl'mī.

11 And from thence he went against the inhabitants of Dē'bīr: and the name of Dē'bīr before was Kĭr'jath-sē'phēr.

12 And Căl'eb said, He that smiteth Kĭr'jath-sē'phēr, and taketh it, to him will I give Ăch'sah my daughter to wife.

13 And Oth'nĭ-ĕl the son of Kĕn'az, the younger brother of Căl'eb, took it: and he gave him Ăch'sah his daughter to wife.

14 And it came to pass, when she came unto him, that she moved him to ask of her father a field: and she lighted from off her ass; and Căl'eb said unto her, What wouldest thou?

15 Who answered him, Give me a blessing: for thou hast given me a south land; give me also springs of water. And Căl'eb gave her the upper springs and the nether springs.

16 And the children of the Kē'nīte, Mō'sĕs' father in law, went up out of the city of palm trees with the children of Jū'dah into the wilderness of Jū'dah, which lieth in the south of [o]Ā'răd; [p]and they went and dwelt among the people.

17 And Jū'dah went with Sĭm'e-on his brother, and they slew the Cā'năan-ītes that inhabited Zē'phath, and utterly destroyed it. And the name of the city was called [q]Hôr'mah.

18 Also Jū'dah took [r]Gā'za with the coast thereof, and Ăs'ke-lŏn with the coast thereof, and Ēk'rŏn with the coast thereof.

19 And [s]the LORD was with Jū'dah; and [t]he drave out the inhabitants of the mountain; but could not drive out the inhabitants of the valley, because they had [t]chariots of iron.

BOSTON AND NEW YORK
HOUGHTON MIFFLIN COMPANY
1919

Special Notice

¶ Owing to the increase in wages and the high cost of the various materials which go into the making of books, especially the paper, and the leather for fine bindings, the prices given in our catalogue are subject to change without notice. It is our intention, however, to maintain our present prices wherever it is possible to do so.

¶ In consideration of the leather market, we find it necessary to limit the number of colors in which we can supply the various titles listed. In the Cambridge and Household editions, half calf, unless we have other colors in stock, we will in the future supply only in light calf; half morocco we will supply in red and green; in the case of the Cambridge full levant, in wine and red only, the Household full levant, in wine only. Any other colors than these which it is necessary to manufacture will be supplied only at an additional cost of 10%. Also unless we have stock we will supply half calf with gilt edge only.

CULLUM, RIDGWELL

*The Law of the Gun. The story opens with a young medical student who, forsaking the scalpel for the branding iron, joins the O Bar O's as a cowpuncher. The early part introduces the reader to Sunrise, a western mining camp, where the prospectors are making a meager living out of gold. There is, however, a well-founded belief that the district is enormously rich in copper if the mineral could only be located, and the popular belief is that Caleb P. Wilmington, a man of mystery, with his beautiful daughter, Patricia, has discovered the whereabouts of the great copper deposits. Wilmington's rival for leadership in the mining camp is Tough Narra, one of the few successful gold miners in the place. Tough is in love with "Pat" and partly owing to this fact, which Wilmington resents, the two men quarrel and the same night Wilmington is shot and killed and the plans stolen. Events then move rapidly to a strong and dramatic climax. 12mo. Cloth. Wrapper and three illustrations by Anton Fischer, all in full color. $1.60

HOLLAND, RUPERT S.

Neptune's Son. This is a stirring story of the sea and of adventure along the coast of South America. Jim Burgess, seventeen, ships before the mast on the Yankee clipper "Barnacle," from Boston for San Francisco by way of Cape Horn. When a few days out, Jim learns that the "Barnacle," besides being out on a trading cruise, is after a pirate sloop commanded by Red Derek, who, in looting one of his victims, stole a famous ruby that originally belonged to a Hindu temple in Delhi. The "Barnacle" follows the trail of Red Derek along the coast of Argentina and thence around the "Horn." They encounter hostile natives in Patagonia, and during the encounter with the pirates Jim and two companions are captured and marooned on a lonely island near Juan Fernandez. They eventually reach Valparaiso and meet a Hindu priest who is also on the trail of the ruby, and with his help Red Derek is brought to bay. Jim Burgess proves in these three months that American boys are still as true sons of Neptune as they were in the great days of whalers and East India merchantmen. 12mo. Cloth. Illustrated. Colored jacket. $1.50

The Year Between. Deals with the emotional development of January Ellice, a beautiful little bush waif of seventeen, who believes herself the wife of a clever but dissolute young engineer employed in a gold mine at Billinjup, in West Australia. Into her drab life comes John Beresford, who is thirty-four, but her naive immature simplicity and the difference in their ages prevent him from declaring the love he grows to feel, in spite of her frank distaste for the husband to whom circumstances have united her. Like reasons, after the husband's death, make Beresford go to the war, leaving her ignorant of his affection. In Gallipoli, where he takes part in the famous landing of April 25th, John regrets his silence and endeavors to repair it, but the jealousy of a former sweetheart comes between him and Jan, and it is some time after his return to Australia before he learns that the fear of separation and the realization of a soldier's daily dicing with death have ripened her heart to the full and complete flower of womanhood. 12mo. WATSON, ALBERT DURRANT

*The Twentieth Plane—A Psychic Revelation. The revelations contained in this book are the most convincing and valuable of any among the remarkable psychological experiences of the last few years. There is sound substance and good phrasing in the messages whoever the author may be. The medium used, Louis Benjamin, is not considered capable of such thought or such language and Dr. Albert Durrant Watson, of Toronto, Canada, under whose supervision the sittings were held, is beyond suspicion. Dr. Watson is a Fellow of the Royal Astronomical Society of Canada, and President of the Association of Psychical Research of Canada. The book claims nothing—attempts to prove nothing—merely recounts what took place, and deserves the attention of that vast body of readers who in the last few years have shown such interest in the possibility of communicating with the dead. 8vo. Cloth. $2.00 net

WILSON, H. A., M.A.

*The Time of Refreshing. This little book is put forth with earnest hope and prayer that it may be some help to that readjustment of our thoughts which is so needed today. The writer is not alone in feeling that many things which should be quite subordinate have today taken the first place in our religious outlook, and that we are in need of that stimulus which can only come from the consciousness that God is absolutely real and ever near to us. Small 12mo. Cloth. 80 cents

BRITISH INTERESTS AND ACTIVITIES IN TEXAS, 1838–1846.

BY EPHRAIM D. ADAMS.

276 pages. 12mo. Price, $1.50.

This work is the result of extended research in the diplomatic archives of this country and of Great Britain. The author throws new and interesting light on the attitude of the English government toward Mexico, Texas, and the United States during the agitation for Texan independence and annexation. The book is a valuable contribution to the diplomatic questions discussed in part in the previous volume by Reeves on American Diplomacy under Tyler and Polk.

DIPLOMATIC NEGOTIATIONS OF AMERICAN NAVAL OFFICERS, 1778–1883.

By CHARLES OSCAR PAULLIN.

380 pages. 12mo. Price, $2.00.

This work presents a brief but comprehensive study of the service of the navy in the field of diplomacy, from John Paul Jones to Rear-Admiral Schufeldt. The naval officer as a diplomat was distinguished for simplicity, candor, and directness, and as his negotiations were for the most part with far distant oriental peoples, he was often the first to establish permanent relations with the United States.

THE DIPLOMACY OF THE WAR OF 1812.

By FRANK A. UPDYKE.

504 pages. 12mo. Price, $2.50.

Then, as now, the United States was the principal neutral power in a war which involved all Europe. The causes of the War of 1812 are clearly set forth. The Treaty of Ghent, the hundredth anniversary of which has recently been celebrated, is the central theme of the latter half of the volume. The negotiations leading to the signing of that treaty are clearly described. The terms of the treaty are examined as well as the questions in dispute which were omitted, and which continued to disturb the relations of the two countries for many years.

EARLY DIPLOMATIC RELATIONS BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES AND MEXICO.

By WILLIAM R. MANNING.

418 pages. 12mo. $2.25.

The writer shows in an interesting way how the British took advantage of our delay in establishing a permanent representative at the Mexican capital to promote British influence over the Mexican government, and how Poinsett's efforts to recover prestige for his government involved him in difficulties and in charges of intermeddling in the internal affairs of the country. The suspicions thus aroused, together with Poinsett's connection with the York Masons, thwarted his efforts to bring to a successful conclusion the treaty negotiations with which he was charged.

EARLY DIPLOMATIC RELATIONS BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES AND JAPAN, 1853–1865.

By PAYSON J. TREAT.

468 pages. 12mo. $2.50.

This volume begins with Perry's romantic visit to Japan, and covers in detail the treaty negotiations so ably conducted by the first representatives of the United States, Townsend Harris and Robert H. Pruyn, concluding with the Mikado's sanction of the treaties in 1865. It is a story of absorbing interest told in admirable style.

THE WEST FLORIDA CONTROVERSY, 1798–1813.

A STUDY IN AMERICAN DIPLOMACY.

By ISAAC JOSLIN COX.

702 Pages. 12mo. $3.00.

The subject involves one of the most intricate problems in American history, and Professor Cox has spared no pains in searching for new sources of information. He has not only availed himself of the collections in Washington and of the material in the Department of Archives and History at Jackson, Mississippi, but he has personally searched the archives at Seville and Madrid.

THE HAGUE PEACE CONFERENCES OF 1899 AND 1907.

By JAMES BROWN SCOTT.

Solicitor for the Department of State and Technical Delegate to the Second Conference.

Two volumes. 8vo. Price, $5.00.

Vol. I. The Conferences, 887 pages. Vol. II. Documents, 548 pages.

These two substantial volumes furnish the most complete account of the Conferences which has appeared in English, and will undoubtedly be accepted as the definitive account of the work of those two great gatherings. The fact that the author was the Technical Delegate of the United States to the Second Conference and played a conspicuous part in its deliberations adds to the authoritative value of the treatise.

FOUR PHASES OF AMERICAN DEVELOPMENT.

FEDERALISM—DEMOCRACY—IMPERIALISM—EXPANSION.

By JOHN BASSETT MOORE.

218 Pages. Crown 8vo. Price, $1.50.

The lectures embraced in this volume are designed to sketch in clear and vivid outline the great movements by which the historical development of the United States is distinguished and to indicate the causes to which they were due. The order in which the several topics are discussed is not intended to denote a strict chronological succession; hence they are described as phases rather than as stages of development.

THE CONSTITUTION OF THE EMPIRE OF JAPAN.

With the Addresses delivered at the meeting in the Johns Hopkins University, April 17, 1889, in Commemoration of its Promulgation.

48 pages. 16mo. Price in paper, 50 cents.

THE CREED OF THE OLD SOUTH.

By BASIL L. GILDERSLEEVE.

128 pages. Crown 8vo. $1.00.

The author in the last score of years has often been urged by his friends and sympathizers to reprint his article issued under this title in 1892, and which attracted wider attention than anything he has ever written. In this volume there is now published, in more accessible form, the author's record of views and impressions that may seem strange even to the survivors of that conflict. There is also included an essay on a cognate theme "A Southerner in the Peloponnesian War" which appeared in 1897.

DISTURBING ELEMENTS IN THE STUDY AND TEACHING OF POLITICAL ECONOMY.

By JAMES BONAR.

156 pages. 8vo. Price, $1.00.

This volume consists of five lectures delivered at the Johns Hopkins University in the spring of 1910. As the title suggests, the lectures are discourses not on economic error in general, but on the more subtle fallacies which are apt to invade the reasoning of trained economists in spite of learning and discipline. The lectures are distinguished by the scholarly tone and philosophical breadth that characterize Dr. Bonar's writings.

THE LIFE AND STORIES OF THE JAINA SAVIOR PĀRCVANĀTHA.

By MAURICE BLOOMFIELD.

266 pages. Octavo. Cloth, $3.00.

This work contains the fullest extant account of the Jaina Savior Pārçvanātha's life, preceded by nine pre-births, all treated with the care of a chronicle of real life and with the sincerity of devout belief. With this life are interwoven a large number of stories illustrating Jaina morality and doctrine. The Jainas are, perhaps, the best story-tellers of India; the present volume adds to the chain of Hindu fiction books a jewel of no mean price. This work should arrest the attention of students of Comparative Literature and Folklore as well as students of the History of Religion.

THE ECLOGUES OF BAPTISTA MANTUANUS.

Edited with Introduction and Notes.

By WILFRED P. MUSTARD.

156 pages. Crown 8vo. $1.50.

The text is based upon that of the first printed edition, of Mantua, 1498. The Introduction treats of the life of Mantuan, his family and friends, his works, his popularity, the wide use of his Eclogues as a school-book, and their influence upon Sixteenth-Century literature. The Notes are mainly devoted to the poet's use of his great classical models.

THE PISCATORY ECLOGUES OF JACOPO SANNAZARO.

Edited with Introduction and Notes.

By WILFRED P. MUSTARD.

94 pages. Crown 8vo. $1.25.

These Latin Poems are very clever imitations, or adaptations, of some of Virgil's Bucolics. The Virgilian conventions are so far modified that the pastoral eclogue becomes a piscatory eclogue, or an idyl of fishermen. The singers are no longer shepherds, but fishermen, and the scene is no longer Sicily, or Acadia, but the Bay of Naples.

THE ECLOGUES OF FAUSTUS ANDRELINUS AND JOANNES ARNOLLETUS.

Edited with Introduction and Notes.

By WILFRED P. MUSTARD.

123 pages. Crown 8vo. $1.50.

The name of Faustus Andrelinus is less familiar than that of either "good old Mantuan" or Sannazaro; he never enjoyed the fame and the influence of the one, he never approached the high poetic plane of the other. And yet in his own day and generation he was a very important personage. One of the Italian scholars who helped to spread the New Learning in France, professor for many years in the University of Paris, the intimate friend of Erasmus, the special protégé of the King and Queen—diu regnavit Lutetiæ. His Eclogues are always readable, because they contain a certain amount of autobiography, and reflect many of his own experiences in Italy and France. They are interesting because of their "moral" tone, with occasional bits of proverbial wisdom and frequent echoes of the great Roman Satirists. And they hold an important place in the tradition of the Pastoral, because of their frequent imitation of Calpurnius and Nemesianus—at a time when these two poets were not very widely read.

POEMA DE FERNAN GONÇALEZ.

Nueva edicion, con introducción, notas y glosario.

Por C. CARROLL MARDEN.

282 pages. 8vo. Cloth, $2.50 net; Paper, $2.00.

The critical text of this old Spanish poem is based on the extant manuscripts and the early prose chronicles. In point of historical importance Fernan Gonçalez ranks with the Cid. The heroic character of the poem composed in his honor, the inherent interest of the subject matter, the many early legends which it sets forth, the fact that it is one of the very few extant specimens of early epic poetry—these considerations make the Poema de Fernan Gonçalez one of the most important monuments of Spanish literature.

Set of ten plates, $30.00.

These consist of ten plates, each 3 x 2 feet, containing two strips of the spectrum, and extending from wave length 3000 to wave length 6950. Concave gratings having 10,000 to 20,000 lines to the inch were used in making these photographs. Two photographs have been made of the B and D lines. The latter are 3 inches apart, and the former has an extent of about 24 inches. Four enlargements of some of the carbon bands from the arc electric light have also been made. These photographs will be sold for $3.00 each.

This series is what its name implies—the child's world. From beginning to end the child is in his own world—a world of pets and games, or rime and story, of ideals and achievements. Its literature touches his life at almost every possible point. Every selection has been made with a view to meeting an actual need in accordance with the child's age, taste and experience. All through the series the literature is tied up with the child's life, the aim being not only to connect his school interests with his home interests, but to vitally connect literature with his life for the sake of the years to come. Full of charming pictures that actually illustrate.

The Literary World

By JOHN CALVIN METCALF, Professor of English University of Virginia; SARAH WITHERS, formerly Principal Elementary Grades and Critic Teacher Winthrop Normal and Industrial College; HETTY S. BROWNE, Extension Worker in Rural School Practice Winthrop Normal and Industrial College.

The Literary World Sixth Reader, 448 pages.....Price 70 cents
The Literary World Seventh Reader, 448 pages....Price 70 cents
The Literary World Eighth Reader, 448 pages.....Price 70 cents

The Literary World is not a mere collection of gems designed to show the pupil what good literature is like. The gems are there, and they will undoubtedly show what good literature is like; but, as one will quickly suspect from their arrangement and character, they are there for another and a higher purpose. This purpose is to make available for the pupil the very best help that literature can give in the development of taste and character.

The arrangement of the series is in strict accord with the general order of normal growth. In the Sixth Reader will be found the immortal stories and some of the immortal characters of history. These furnish many of the foundation stones both of character and a literary education. In the Seventh Reader will be found the classics of English and American literature and the cream of the literature of the present day, selected largely with a view to the development of a sound taste in reading. The Eighth Reader offers in an admirable series of selections a carefully worked-out logical study in the forms or types of literature.

The illustrations throughout the series were designed not only to illustrate and enrich the text but to develop the artistic sense.

Country Life Readers

By CORA WILSON STEWART.

First Book, 96 pages.....Price 30 cents
Second Book, 160 pages.....Price 40 cents
Third Book, 286 pages.....Price 50 cents

The establishment of moonlight schools in fifteen States has created a demand for a series of readers especially adapted to their needs. The textbooks now in use in evening elementary schools were largely prepared to meet the needs of our city foreign population. The time has come when the people attending the moonlight schools must have textbooks which deal with the problems of rural life, and which reflect rural life.

The Country Life Readers have been planned with this pressing need in view.

Learning to read from a child's book is a dull task. It is hardly fair to expect a mature man or woman to become deeply interested in sentences dealing with such childish subjects as "throwing the ball," or "dressing the doll," or "playing with the cat." The First Book in the Country Life Reader series treats, in a manner as simple as the child's first reader, subjects that are of interest to men and women.

Included in the text matter are interesting letters, printed in script, which the student is expected to copy and send to some relative or friend. These letters are models of neatness and style.

The book is attractively illustrated.

Spelling

Common Words Commonly Misspelled

By BRUCE R. PAYNE.

120 pages.....Price 28 cents

For the high school and upper grammar grades.

Dr. Bruce Payne, in the course of fourteen years' experience as a teacher in high schools, colleges and summer schools, became convinced that spelling is a much more difficult subject than it is usually regarded; that students of high-school training misspell a very large number of common words, and that, instead of forcing a student through a list of difficult words rarely used in order that he may find ten such words which he has misspelled, it is far better to find out as nearly as possible what his frequent errors are and restrict his study to overcoming these.

Acting upon these convictions, Dr. Payne invited five thousand teachers to send him a list of common words commonly misspelled by their students. With these lists before him he selected with infinite pains 2,375 of the most common words most commonly misspelled.

Out of these words he has built a Speller—the most unique, the most modern, and, for its particular purpose, certainly the most helpful Speller ever produced.

Word Studies

By EDWIN S. SHEPPE.

Word Studies, Primary Book, 96 pages.....Price 18 cents
Word Studies, Advanced Book, 126 pages.....Price 18 cents
Word Studies, Complete (two books in one vol.)...Price 28 cents

The purpose of this series of Spellers is (1) to enable the beginner to recognize readily and to pronounce accurately the various word forms found in his reader; (2) to teach the spelling, meaning and use of words necessary for a sound education, and (3) to bridge the gap between the spelling book and the dictionary.

The phonic drill-lists in the first part of the book are intended primarily to aid the beginner in giving to each letter or combination of letters in a word its proper sound value, and thus to teach him to pronounce words at sight. As a further aid to the mastery of English orthography, the important law of the association of like with like is utilized by grouping words, as far as possible, according to both regularity and similarity of spelling. The more prolific and typical classes of words in common use are taken up first, then the smaller groups, and finally the phonic outlaws, which are comparatively few in number.

Common School Speller

First Book, boards, 104 pages.....Price 15 cents
Second Book, boards, 130 pages.....Price 20 cents
Speller Complete (two books in one volume); cloth; 226 pages.....Price 30 cents

The First Book is made to be used side by side with First and Second Readers as a direct and distinct help to the child in learning to read. The Second Book meets the needs of the pupils in the Third, Fourth and Fifth Reader classes. The vocabulary includes: first, the vocabulary of the common school textbooks; second, the common words in daily use outside of the schoolroom, especially such as are frequently misspelled or mispronounced. Mere catch-words, difficult to spell and infrequently used, are excluded. The exercises for dictation, copying, sentence spelling and the like are especially rich in ethical values.

Penmanship

Smithdeal's Slant Writing Books

By G. M. SMITHDEAL.

Six numbers.....Price 6 cents each

The Smithdeal Writing Books excel in grading and in the variety and practical value of the exercises. Great care has been exercised in selecting styles of letters. For example, in most copybooks the standard capitals A and H require lifting the pen from the paper and starting again, twice in the construction of each letter. In the Smithdeal Copybooks these forms are made without lifting the pen at all. The slant of writing in these books has been reduced from 52 to 45 degrees.

Language

Smith-McMurry Language Series

By C. ALPHONSO SMITH, Head of Department of English U. S. Naval Academy, and MRS. LIDA B. McMURRY, Northern Illinois State Normal School.

Book One.....Price 50 cents
Book Two.....Price 55 cents
Book Three.....Price 60 cents

The close of the Nineteenth Century witnessed the discovery of the paragraph as the unit of all connected discourse, whether written or spoken. The beginning of the Twentieth Century has witnessed a discovery of equal importance; it is that speaking should precede writing. These are the two basic thoughts that have controlled the preparation of the Smith-McMurry Language Series.

The series is in full accord with the modern view that the essential aims of the teacher of English are to be secured through oral language work. Emphasis is placed upon effective talking, not only because we talk a hundred times where we write once, but also because effective talking is the best possible preparation for effective writing.

Oral language work includes: (1) training and practice in connected talking; (2) careful articulation and pronunciation; (3) exercises on common errors in speech (mostly through games and habitual use), and (4) enlargement of the vocabulary. The Smith-McMurry Language Series makes these four phases of language work basal. The word most constantly in use in the first two books is "tell," and the questions asked are so framed as to train the child to talk in a connected manner. All children have something to say, for each day brings them a host of experiences that demand expression. The part of the teacher is to give the children the chance to relate these experiences under the right conditions. She must create the conditions for talking for some definite purpose, instead of merely leading into disconnected and garrulous conversations, and she must supply the real situations which make language teaching vital. In this language series these situations are based on the natural interests of childhood; they include outdoor and child life and the inspirational side of adult life. The children, however, are not asked to express feelings and thoughts they will have when they become men and women, but the feelings and thoughts they have now, as children.

Our Language

By C. ALPHONSO SMITH, Professor of English U. S. Naval Academy; MRS. LIDA B. McMURRY, Northern Illinois State Normal School, and F. T. NORVELL.

First Book, Language Lessons, 204 pages.....Price 40 cents
Second Book, Language Lessons and Grammar, 240 pages .....Price 45 cents
Third Book, Grammar, 271 pages.....Price 50 cents

In the preparation of this series it has been the aim of the authors (1) to interest the pupil by novel but vital illustrations; (2) to make him feel a pride in using good English; (3) to eliminate the dry-as-dust exercises that have so long been in vogue, and (4) to make the knowledge of the English language go hand in hand with the appreciation of English literature.

Literature

English Literature

By J. C. METCALF, Professor of English in the University of Virginia.

Illustrated; 464 pages.....Price $1.35

In reading the book one is struck with its perfect sanity. Everywhere there are evidences of a fine sense of proportion, and the entire volume is pervaded by an atmosphere of "sweet reasonableness," in which exaggerations or extremes are impossible.

While due emphasis is placed upon the biographies, the author has been careful not to make too much of his biographical sketches. He gives the important facts in the careers of the prominent authors of each period, and, realizing that literature is in a peculiar sense an expression of personality, sums up their personal traits; moreover, when an author's contribution has proved epoch-making he gives prominence to the fact in a final summary.

In treating the earlier periods, liberal use has been made of illustrative extracts of the author's works (this on the assumption that the literature of these periods is not usually within reach of the average student), but further on the student is expected to depend upon a volume of selections of English poetry and prose, or upon separate editions of representative classics.

The book is in form and content the outcome of Dr. Metcalf's signally successful experience as a teacher of English literature, and, therefore, has the additional merit of having been written "with a definite set of individuals in view."

American Literature

By J. C. METCALF, Professor of English in the University of Virginia.

Illustrated; 415 pages.....Price $1.25

In this work Dr. Metcalf presents, in a clear and systematic manner, the main facts and tendencies in American literature, from the beginning to the present. Special emphasis has been given to movements and individual characteristics which seem distinctively American.

What the student has a right to demand in a textbook, above everything else, is clearness of presentation; and the history of literature in a big country like ours, where diversity, of interest and tradition only serves to give a spice of variety to our essential national unity, cannot be clearly and truthfully presented except along the lines of its natural growth. This is not sectionalism, but diversified Americanism. The contribution of New England, with its strong moral and didactic flavor; of the Middle States, with their more metropolitan tendencies; of the South, with its romantic sentiment; of the West, with its fresh and vigorous realism—each of these contributions is set forth as a significant element in our national development.

A fuller treatment of Southern writers is to be found in this work than in other volumes of similar size on American literature.

Readings in American Literature

By JOHN CALVIN METCALF, Professor of English in the University of Virginia, and HENRY BRANTLY HANDY, Professor of English in Richmond College.

528 pages .....Price $1.60

The present volume of selections is primarily intended to accompany a history of American literature. Biographical matter has therefore been omitted, and only such notes have been added as seem indispensable to a clear understanding of the text. After the Colonial and Revolutionary periods, the selections have been arranged in regional groups in accordance with the plan followed in most briefer histories of American literature.

Southern Literature

By LOUISE MANLY.

Illustrated; 540 pages.....Price $1.00

In looking for literature for her pupils to read in connection with American history, Louise Manly met with a serious practical difficulty. She found abundant literature in inexpensive form for parallel reading with the history of the Northern States, but very little suitable for reading in connection with the history of the South.

To meet this difficulty, Miss Manly undertook the preparation of a comprehensive review of Southern literature from the beginning of our history down to 1895. In this task she received valuable assistance from well-known educators, and the result is a most helpful volume, which will be found well adapted not only for reading in connection with Southern history, but also as the groundwork for a serious study of Southern life and letters.

Poets of Virginia

By F. V. N. PAINTER.

Illustrated; gilt top; 336 pages.....Price $1.50

This volume will be welcomed by students and lovers of literature, not only because it is the first comprehensive study of the Virginia poets, and the first anthology of Virginia poetry, but also because it is an important contribution to the culture-history of the Virginia people, and an invaluable source book.

History

A Short History of the American People

By EDNA H. L. TURPIN.

517 pages.....Price 90 cents

This book is prepared with careful regard to the needs of sixth and seventh grade pupils. Sentences are short, language is simple and clear, subject matter is kept carefully within the grasp of grammar grade children. When technical or unusual terms are necessary, they are explained in the text or included in the study questions. In order to leave the pupil free to give his whole attention to the subject matter, language and sentence construction are adapted to grades lower than those for which the text is intended. Even poorly graded or backward pupils find the language of this book a pleasant path into the field of knowledge, instead of—as in many history textbooks—a barrier between them and the thought.

A Word As To Prices

THOSE who have frequent occasion to consult our catalogues will note that in this 1919 edition we have made a number of price advances. We have done so reluctantly, and only after delaying as long as possible in the hope that costs of labor and raw materials would cease to mount. They are still mounting, however, and even since the cessation of hostilities no relief has come in sight. Consequently, with everything entering into the making and marketing of a book costing from 33⅓ to 200 or 300 per cent more than it did in 1914, we have at length been obliged to bow to the inevitable and do what we would have been more than justified in doing a year or more ago—in other words, we have raised some of our prices to some extent.

But we have by no means raised them in proportion to the average increase in manufacturing costs. Furthermore, the dealer will find a greater margin for him in our new discounts and, therefore, a greater incentive than ever to work for Laird & Lee sales. As for the book buyer, we can assure him that he will find more value than ever in Laird & Lee books during 1919.

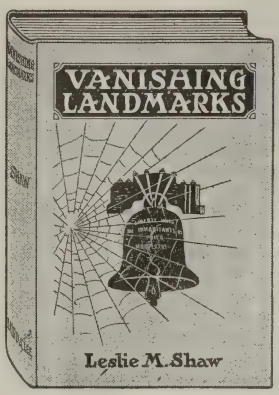
THE AMERICAN PUBLIC WANTS THE FACTS!



EX-SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY SHAW

has stripped away the mask of conventional platitudes. He shows a most American disregard for that ancient "What the public doesn't need to know" argument.

A striking piece of patriotism is

VANISHING LANDMARKS

The Trend Toward Bolshevism

Mr. Shaw, Secretary of the Treasury under President Roosevelt, former Governor of Iowa, no small figure today in unofficial life, is eminently fitted by nature and experience to handle so vast a subject—vast in its consequences, minute in its practical details. For Mr. Shaw succeeds in showing that common sense is the basis of the judgment that must be rendered by the American people, and that common experience is the medium through which we must interpret the momentous changes which have been taking place in our conception of government and its proper functions.

NO QUESTION NEARER TO AMERICA'S HEART

A PLEASANT MEDICINE, THIS BOOK, BUT NONE THE LESS POTENT ::: ::: IT WILL RID YOUR SYSTEM OF MANY A VAGUE MISINFORMATION THAT ELSEWHERE HAS REACHED THE AGGRAVATION OF A FEVER

VANISHING LANDMARKS

PLAIN FACTS FROM A PLAIN AMERICAN WHO HAS HAD AN UNUSUAL OPPORTUNITY ::: CANDID TO THE POINT OF BLUNTNESS; HUMAN TO THE POINT OF HUMOR; TRUE TO THE POINT OF PESSIMISM — BUT HONEST ALL THE WAY THROUGH

FROM THE BACK OF THE JACKET

The truth about government ownership, control or direction of public utilities—Civil Service — the Postal System—the new trend toward direct legislation — the labor situation — the greater problem which comprises all these: discussed without rancor, without blind partisanship—but each issue squarely met. It is a book for wide reading—wide discussion—wide sales.

An enthusiasm for facts, mellowed with tolerance and enriched by a genial personality—that is Leslie M. Shaw.

A keen analysis of conditions, warmed by a fervent love of America and pointed with both humor and inescapable logic—that is Vanishing Landmarks.

Bound in extra cloth; stamped in gold and blind. An unusual "selling" jacket. Half-tone frontispiece. Standard 12mo; 256 pages.

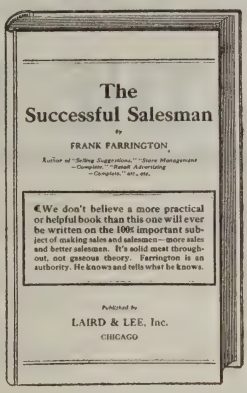
A Steadily Growing Sale Attests Its Merit

For years Frank Farrington has held high rank as a teacher of salesmen. Then his "Talks by the Old Storekeeper" brought him the same wide recognition as a writer of books. Now comes a combination of both—it is a book that does teach salesmanship.



Here's a book that reaches a class large enough to include every man and woman that engages in business—and not a one of them but will get his dollar's worth in that true instruction which is inspiration plus works.

THE SUCCESSFUL SALESMAN

ONE of the best proofs of the genuine value of the book is its ability to sell itself. Reading a dozen pages will convince any forward-looking business person of its dollars and cents value to him. It deals definitely, constructively, with every problem of method that will confront the salesman. It will, at the same time, give him a broader outlook on success, and a better grasp of the fundamentals of his business. We can recommend, without qualification, this book of the "science of selling."

"Class Books" and "Limited" Sales Are Not Always Synonymous

A BOOK that successfully refutes the idea that "all you can teach is the theory of selling." It teaches the practice of selling; it makes salesmen. It is straight from the shoulder, practical, instructive, without a waste word. It is based on experience—both in teaching and in selling. It's a "class" book—the biggest class in the world—all who buy or sell. An employer said on presenting copies:

SALES MANAGERS HAVE SAID:

"The Successful Salesman" has been perused with a great deal of interest; it is a mighty good book to have. Please send copies to the eighteen names herewith." — Edward Hines Lumber Co.

"Covers the ground most excellently; he gives things just about the right pitch."—Johnson & Johnson.

"Every Page is a Coupon in the Big Book of Success"

THE book appeals to clear-sighted sales-managers, who are, in increasing numbers, buying this book to give to their force. It pays a dividend to the house; it pays just as high a dividend to the salesman who reads its clearly written pages—who follows its keen suggestions.

Every business man or woman, every salesman, big or little, every ambitious young man is a potential buyer for this book. A single copy turned loose in your community may mean sales for many more. Any big employer who can be persuaded to read the book will readily see where a dozen more copies will bring him returns.

Neat 12mo; art boards, cloth back.

"I have read a number of books on selling, but Farrington's is the best ever. I am going to tell everybody I meet about it, for no other reason than to serve them."—The New Success.

"This man, Farrington, is all to the good. He comes nearer saying what I have always wished some fellow would say about the selling game than anybody I ever ran across."—The Head of the Concern.

"Many valuable suggestions which a salesman, no matter how long his experience, will find helpful. Please let us know what forty copies will cost."—His Sales Manager.

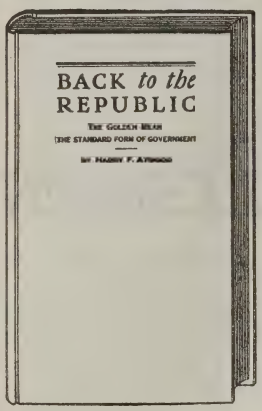
BACK TO THE REPUBLIC

The Golden Mean—the Standard Form of Government



By HARRY F. ATWOOD

Never before in all of our more than thirty years of publishing experience have we had the privilege of bringing out a book that made such an instant, widespread, and powerful appeal to the best minds in the country—to men and women of the caliber of Hon. David Jayne Hill; Pres. Nicholas Murray Butler, of Columbia University; Pres. Ray Lyman Wilbur, of Leland Stanford University; Mrs. Grace Wilbur Trout; Mrs. Harriet Vaughn Moody, Wilbur D. Nesbit; U. S. Senator James E. Watson; ex-Pres. Ripley, of the Sante Fe; Otto H. Kahn, and many others of like standing.

Here Are Some of the Things They Say About It

David Jayne Hill: "The position taken by Mr. Atwood is fundamentally right, and the subject is of great importance at this time." Pres. Wilbur, of Leland Stanford Univ.: "It presents a point of view that should be considered by every American in this great period of stress and change." George Tracy Buckingham, Attorney Public Utilities Com. of Ill.: "It is an extraordinary book, wholly unique in its character, but illuminating a basic principle which must be made the subject of extensive propaganda in the next generation." Sen. Jas. E. Watson: "Your book should have most generous circulation." Wilbur D. Nesbit: "Ought to be read by every citizen, and especially by every young man and woman who is growing into citizenship. I do not recall ever having read a book on similar problems which is so lucid and so understandable by the ordinary mind. . . . Your book has every element of popularity, without the superficiality of other books which have taken quick hold on the public mind." Mrs. Grace Wilbur Trout: "Every citizen of the country should read this book. It is an inspiration to high citizenship."

"BOLSHEVISM'S WORST ENEMY"

Nothing could be more searching or timely than "Back to the Republic." It makes plain that our forefathers insisted that they were founding a Republic, not a democracy, and it gives the significant reasons for their insistence. It summons us from license to liberty; from all "dangerous experiments" of unbridled democracy back to the safeguarding checks and balances of the U. S. Constitution; from "soviet republics," and all that tends to Bolshevism and mobocracy, back to the one true Republic. And in a truly prophetic chapter, "A World Republic," it calls all the rest of the world "Forward to the Republic"—in fact, to "the Republic of the United Republics of the World." It is one of the books of the generation.

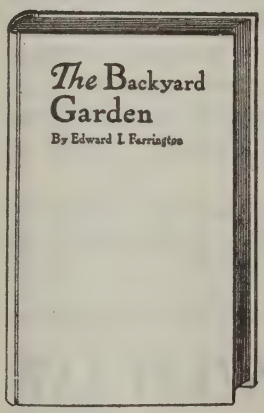
THE BACKYARD GARDEN

A Handbook for the Amateur, the Community and the School

By EDWARD I. FARRINGTON

A Book That Makes Things Plain



This splendidly compact volume is so charmingly written and yet so complete, so clear, and so practical that, while it inspires the old-time gardener with renewed enthusiasm, it makes plain and smooth also the path of the beginner who takes up the hoe now for the first time at the call of "Uncle Sam." A score of useful reference tables, garden plans, a garden calendar, appropriate illustrations and an alphabetical index add to the educational and practical value of this comprehensive work. It is adapted for school and community work as well as to the needs of the home garden-maker, and will prove an invaluable aid to teachers and others having in charge any concerted gardening efforts.

"Horticulture" says of it: "A timely book by a student and observant writer who has made a very favorable impression wherever he has appeared as a lecturer and who possesses a most captivating style. . . . . The volume is a handbook of distinct value to the amateur garden maker, its chapters are instructive on strictly practical lines, and its topics are well selected and comprehensive. It is compact and completely indexed."

"The Garden Magazine" declares that it "meets as nearly as any book can, within the limits of 190 small pages, the needs of the beginner striving to avoid the many pitfalls to his enthusiasm which every first garden is bound to put in its maker's path. At the same time, it gives such concise directions regarding many advanced methods of gardening that it will prove a valuable addition to any home gardener's reference library. Those in charge of school and community gardening will appreciate the volume."

"The Bookseller, Newsdealer and Stationer" holds that it "should prove an enthusiastic first-aid in showing belated city folk how to get back to the backyard—how to appreciate nature, and how to take up garden arms in the cause of food conservation!"

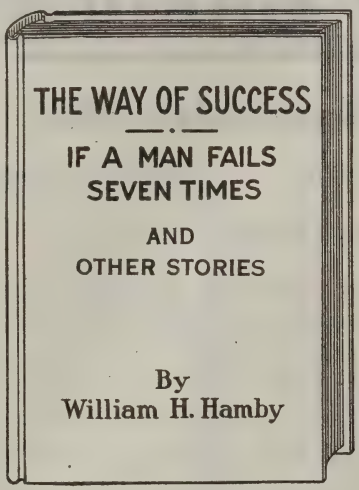
THE WAY OF SUCCESS



If a Man Fails Seven Times—The Man At the Top—In Debt and Out—The Commercial Club in Our Town

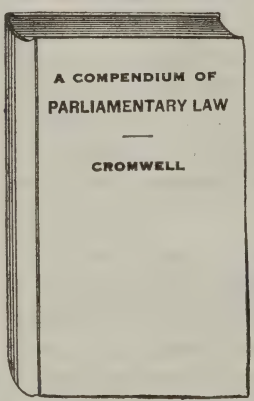
By WILLIAM H. HAMBY

Cloth, 12mo, $1.00 Net

These articles when they originally appeared in the Saturday Evening Post, brought scores of letters from all classes of men—from high school boys to railroad presidents, who had found in them renewed courage and clearer vision of success.

These sketches are neither sermons nor airy themes, but are taken direct from actual experiences, and are as real—and true as life itself.

A COMPENDIUM OF PARLIAMENTARY LAW



For Organizations, High Schools, Colleges and All Deliberative Bodies

Compiled by
EMMA GUY CROMWELL
Enrolling Clerk, Kentucky House of Representatives

There are many books on Parliamentary Law; but there is always room for greater simplification and clarification. This book aims at just that. A knowledge of Civil Government, to be of practical value, should be supplemented by a thorough understanding of Parliamentary Law, especially in these days of universal organization. Who is not today an officer of some organization, with the need of a parliamentary guide which this implies? Or if not now an officer, who is not an organization member and prospective officer, with every incentive to learn parliamentary practice in time to avoid embarrassment if suddenly called upon to preside?

This new work offers

to a good working knowledge of the principles and usages governing deliberative bodies and is accurate in its statements and systematic in its presentation.

Recommended by Helen M. Winslow, Editor and Publisher, Official Register of Women's Clubs of America; Gov. Stanley, Lieut. Gov. Black, and State Supt. of Education Gilbert, of Kentucky, among others.

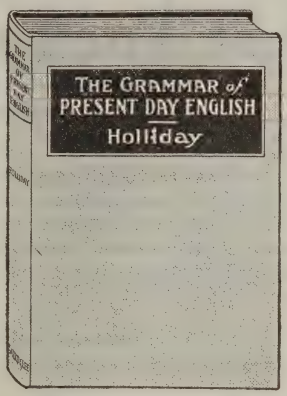
"A Clear and Simple Statement of Formal Grammar"

EDWIN HERBERT LEWIS, Dean of Lewis Institute

"For two years, at the University of Montana, I used this book as the basis of teaching correct English to Forestry Engineers. Engineering students, above all of us, are prone to dislike the study of English. Many were frank to admit that for the first time they knew why correct English is correct."
Sylvia B. Brady.



"The book should prove an effective means of teaching grammar; a successful attempt to simplify and popularize its essential principles, in a very interesting style and with an abundance of illustration."—Frank Pavlicek, Waite High School, Toledo.

The Grammar of Present-Day English

By PROFESSOR CARL HOLLIDAY of Toledo University

"If such a text as this were used in the grammar grades and in first year high school, our children would learn to know and respect our language. The mechanism of a sentence, the function of every word, phrase, and clause, the relation of all these to each other, and to the whole sentence, stand out clearly. The book gives me a sense of completeness and unity. I should like to use it."
MARGARET BAKER, Parker High School, Chicago.

Different

Not a composition book, nor a mixture of grammar, rhetoric, and composition; a terse treatment of the essentials of grammatical usage of today, presented in its most easily understood form. It shows the English Language as a living organism, developing, perfecting itself—it will increase the pupil's respect for his language and its rules of usage.

Brief

The book can be completed by the average class in a half-year term; for advanced pupils, to be used as a review, eight weeks is sufficient. No dead-wood, no padding: the pupil is not burdened with memorizing rules no longer enforced, nor classifications and abstractions of interest only to the pedant. It teaches only what the child ought to remember; and it makes sure that both memory and practice is the inevitable result.

Simple

Common sense is the basis of both presentation and application; illustrative forms and usages are drawn from common experiences. The style is easy, informal, almost conversational; the information is not buried under a mass of words. The arrangement is natural, each detail is thoroughly covered in its proper place, step by step.

Complete

Only the essentials,—but all of them. It contains all the English grammar used today; shows quickly but definitely what is correct, and why it is correct. Incidentally, the study of grammar becomes not the bug-bear it has always been to most of us, but a thing closely and pleasantly related to life, a vital growing organism whose destiny is the intimate concern of the individual.

GUIDE TO HISTORICAL FICTION

The World's Great Fiction, Dealing with All Periods from Ancient Egypt to Modern Times, Analyzed, Classified and Historically Treated

By J. R. KAYE, Ph.D., LL.D.

We take unusual pleasure in announcing this book for early publication because it will occupy its important and exceptionally fascinating field all alone, and will at once prove invaluable to all librarians; teachers of English and general history; writers and speakers; high school and college students; members of literary circles and women's clubs; fiction loving boys and girls; young men and women; parents who wish to guide the reading of their children into the best as well as the most absorbingly interesting channels—and indeed to all who enjoy historical fiction and are eager to extend their knowledge of it, as well as to all those who may be desirous of making history more understandable and vivid, either to themselves or others.

Dr. Kaye has given us a book that is so arranged that the close student can get at the most comprehensive knowledge of the subject, while at the same time the most eager young person can thumb through the remarkably complete index and in a few moments learn the name of another "peach of a story" to ask for at the library.

This is what this wonderful Guide to Historical Fiction does:

1. The world's historical fiction is classified under the general divisions—Ancient, Medieval and Modern. 2. The periods, the historical settings of the stories, etc., are briefly sketched, and all subjects essential to the understanding of the fiction under consideration, such as Stoicism, Epicureanism, Neo-Platonism, etc., are adequately explained. 3. Brief biographies of each author are given, together with an outline of every plot. 4. Dramatic and other non-fictional works of the imagination, dealing with historical subjects, are listed in their proper places.

Danish-Norwegian-English English-Danish-Norwegian

SELF-PRONOUNCING

DICTIONARY

By HENRY NISSEN

THE value and merit of this dictionary will readily be appreciated. Its two-fold design is to supply a long-felt need of having a self-pronouncing dictionary of convenient (hip-pocket) size and to give to the Danish-Norwegian population a system of markings that will minimize the difficulties of studying the English language. With a little study of the simplified system of diacritical markings and phonetic respellings used in Part I, one may, without difficulty, consult any standard English dictionary, and escape the confusion resulting from the use of two systems of markings. In Part II, a key to Danish-Norwegian pronunciation is provided, as an aid to those who wish to learn the Danish-Norwegian language.

Radford's Estimating and Contracting

A mistake in estimating means the difference between a profit or a loss on a contract. In these days of modern construction it is not safe to guess or go by "rule of thumb." Even experienced contractors who rely upon eyesight or rough calculations make costly errors.

It is mighty easy to overlook some important detail if it is not down in black on white. Jobs are lost because of too high prices. Profits are lost because prices are too low. Be on safe ground; have a reliable, accurate guide to help you in your figuring.

A safe and sure guide for any contractor. Its 887 pages are filled with up-to-date methods for rapid, systematic and accurate calculation of costs of all types and details of building construction and all related work of contractors.

It gives quotations and other data indicating the cost of materials and labor, standard schedules and forms used for measurements and estimates, labor-saving tables and all other points a contractor, builder or carpenter should know.

VIVIDLY and correctly portrays human nature at its best. Full of passion and pathos, illustrating the power of love to conquer all other human emotions and become the sole guiding principle of life. A Romance of the Road

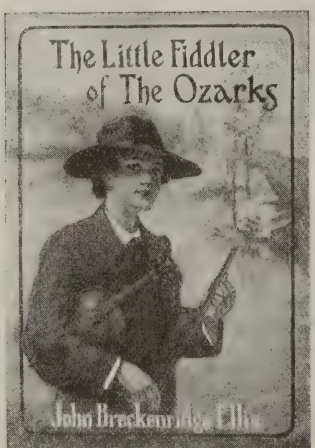
By ALICE CURTICE MOYER.

SOMETHING new in fiction — because so much is fact. A "sure enough" story, where the characters are actual, living, breathing human beings. "But the one romance, the principal romance, is the romance unique." It couldn't happen exactly the same anywhere else, nor under any other conditions. It is purely a "Romance of the road." It is full of life and action, and at the same time free from the lurid atmosphere that mars so many of the modern stories.

279 pages. 12mo, Extra cloth, original ornamental design, colored frontispiece and five pages of grouped portraits in halftone, $1.00 net.

Wholesome Sentiment in Dramatic Setting



The Little Fiddler of the Ozarks

By J. Breckenridge Ellis

It is seldom that a story combines so much that is essentially sweet and heart-warming, with the virile, active elements of a life that knows the primitive passions. A background quaint and intriguing; a heroine of elusive but no less appealing charm; a story of heart interest rather than suspense—a simply told love story.

A Full Color Jacket with a Real Appeal

The Little Fiddler will live. It has the qualities which impel the reader to pass on a most enjoyable bit of sentiment.

Standard 12mo. Bound in silk cloth, stamped in gold and ink. Frontispiece in full color. Eight other illustrations in duotone.

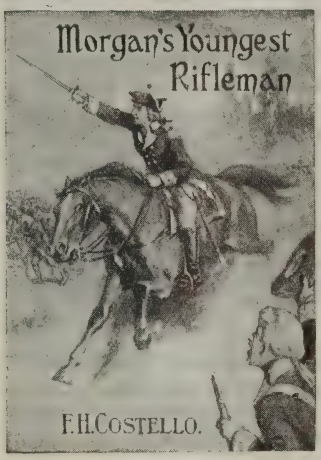
For the Boy--or Man--who Wants a Thrill



Morgan's Youngest Rifleman

By F. H. Costello

In these days, when so much stress is laid on putting the right kind of reading into the hands of developing boys, there ought to be a special demand for so wholesome an adventure story as this—a story packed with daring exploits and excitement, yet carrying just the right tone. It will give a boy the right sort of ideals—of patriotism and good clean sportsmanship in the bigger things of life. It is a graphic story of Revolutionary days, depicting some of the most dramatic events of a stirring period in history.

A Picture Jacket That More Than Catches the Eye

When some one asks you for "a good book for boys," Morgan's Youngest Rifleman is the answer.

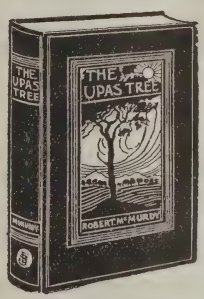
A LAWYER'S NOVEL



The Upas Tree

By Judge Robert McMurdy

This book combines the charm of a romance, the grip of a detective story and the dramatic interest of a trial for life. It is replete with complicated legal situations and presents the most powerful argument against the death penalty ever written.

The hero of "THE UPAS TREE" is Beckwith Miller, a lawyer of average ability, who is brought to the shadow of the gallows by a network of incriminating circumstances. In his legal defender, Colonel Sickles, a veteran practitioner, the author has created a character which will live in literature long after most of the heroes and heroines of the "best sellers" in the fiction of today are forgotten.

THE AMERICAN JOURNAL OF THE MEDICAL SCIENCES

GEORGE MORRIS PIERSOL, M.D., Editor.
JOHN H. MUSSER, Jr., M.D., Assistant Editor.

MONTHLY. ILLUSTRATED. FIVE DOLLARS PER YEAR.

"ONE of the world's few great journals" is the judgment of Sir William Osler. For a century it has been the preferred medium for the important announcements of the medical world—preëminently the useful magazine of the profession.

It is a Journal of character and of distinction, a periodical of world-scope. Its pages are not filled with ordinary news or gossip. They are devoted to the expression of the ripe thought and experience of leaders in every field—to useful discussion of the puzzling conditions of practice by foremost teachers and men whose exceptional experience in hospital and general practice gives their views the greatest weight.

Practical, authoritative, it offers the results of research and experiment, the detailed experience the progressive practitioner must possess. Under "Progress of Medical Science" the world's announcements are assembled, analyzed and discussed in the light of their own research by authorities in each department. The condensed, readable, proven residue is the world's real progress. Those assisting in this work are: W. S. Thayer, M.D., Johns Hopkins; Roger S. Morris, M.D., Univ. of Cincinnati; Oskar Klotz, M.D., Univ. of Pittsburgh; T. Turner Thomas, M.D., Univ. of Pennsylvania; J. Solis-Cohen, M.D.; Milton B. Hartzell, M.D., Univ. of Pennsylvania; George W. McCoy, M.D., United States Public Health Service; Edward P. Davis, M.D., Jefferson Medical College; John G. Clark, M.D., Univ. of Pennsylvania; Frank B. Block, M.D., Univ. of Pennsylvania; Thomas Ordway, M.D., Union Univ.; Edward Jackson, M.D.; T. B. Schneideman, M.D.; Milton J. Rosenau, M.D., Harvard Medical School; Samuel W. Lambert, M.D., Columbia Univ.; Charles C. Leib, M.D., Columbia Univ.; Thompson S. Wescott, M.D.; Alvin E. Siegel, M.D. Each number of the Journal is a well-rounded volume offering at least 10 original contributions of vital importance. Its files are a reference library kept constantly revised. Always timely in its consideration of subjects of immediate interest to the profession, the American Journal is, for the practitioner, surgeon or specialist, a reflection of the advanced thought of the medical world developed along lines of practical usefulness.

PROGRESSIVE MEDICINE

Quarterly. Illustrated. 1200 Pages. Postpaid, Paper, $6.00—Cloth, $9.00 Per Annum.

Edited by HOBART AMORY HARE, M.D.
Professor of Therapeutics, Materia Medica, and Diagnosis, Jefferson Medical College.

Assisted by LEIGHTON F. APPLEMAN, M.D.
Instructor in Therapeutics, Jefferson Medical College.

ITS immeasurable service to the medical profession establishes Progressive Medicine as an institution of unique importance. It supplies in orderly and usable form a mass of new material culled from the important medical journals of the world. The combined subscription price of the journals consulted by the staff and contributors is over $1200, two hundred times the cost for a year of Progressive Medicine. They are printed in the language of every civilized country, and embody the important announcements of the world's progress in medical science. Issued quarterly, Progressive Medicine is a digest covering the entire field and presenting in complete detail advances, discoveries and improvements in medical and surgical science.

No dreary mechanical compilations are offered, prepared with scissors and paste, but virile, readable, original narratives, in which the author not only reviews and analyzes the progress of events but embodies his own knowledge and wide experience. Beyond estimate is the value of the time and special training expended to place the world's medical progress and its significance at the ready disposal of the reader. The result is a symposium, authoritative, complete and readable, in which actual results and real progress alone are presented. The observations of widely-separated workers are coördinated: missing links supplied; the superficial, unproven and non-essential rejected.

Progressive Medicine is the digested essence of the entire current medical literature of the world, clarified and explained by men whose practical experience enables them to grasp and indicate the bearing of each new advance on the every-day work of the practitioner or specialist, of the research worker or the surgeon. It is a complete reference library, conveniently arranged by subjects, carefully indexed and thoroughly revised four times each year.
